

Property To Let

I have not said anything about this before because I wanted to wait until everything had been finalized but I recently purchased a one bedroom property near Marbella in sunny Spain as an investment property.

The purchase was completed last Friday and I thought I'd let you know if you're interested in renting...it's available for weekends (or weeks would be even better for me).

Initially I will be handling bookings myself, until I find an Agent in the area to manage the property.

Weekends will cost approximately £35.00 (friends' rate) for two nights and £75 for the week, at least up till 30 October of this year.

It's a one bed on the first floor, (no lift sorry) but has lovely sea views etc.

Attached is a photo, so let me know if you are interested.
